2. The matter was referred to [redacted] who suggested that [redacted] contact [redacted] A meeting was held in [redacted] office, attended by OPC and Communications personnel, at which time OPC was requested to prepare a memorandum to CPB outlining requirements. Communications assisted in drafting this memorandum which was to incorporate a statement that the Communications Division was unable to undertake this commitment unless additional staff personnel for selection and training duties (personnel to be isolated from OSO or other CIA personnel during training period) were added to the present table of organization.

3. The matter of space for training was also discussed but it is believed that no action has as yet been initiated in this regard.
